EXPLANATORY OUTLINE

of the

DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT PLAN ("DRP" OR THE "PLAN")

DECISION REQUIRED BY SHAREHOLDERS

Shareholders should decide which of the following alternatives suits their particular circumstances with respect to dividends to which the Plan may apply:

ALTERNATIVE 1: RECEIVE CASH

Shareholders may receive cash for all of their dividends.

ALTERNATIVE 2: PARTICIPATE IN THE DRP

Shareholders may elect to participate in the DRP and reinvest part or all of their dividends in additional fully paid ordinary shares in Korvest. The dividend on the balance of your shareholding (if any) will be paid in cash. The number of shares issued pursuant to the DRP and the issue price will be in accordance with the Rules of the DRP (see Features of the Plan on the following page for summary details) free of any brokerage, commission, stamp duty and other transaction costs.

ALTERNATIVE 3: ANY COMBINATION OF CASH AND DRP

Shareholders may receive cash and/or elect to participate in the DRP in any combination.

ACTION REQUIRED BY SHAREHOLDERS

The following action is required by shareholders with respect to each of the above alternatives:

ALTERNATIVE 1: RECEIVE CASH

If you wish to receive all of your dividends in cash, no action is required.

ALTERNATIVE 2: PARTICIPATE IN THE DRP

ALTERNATIVE 3: ANY COMBINATION OF CASH AND DRP

If you wish to participate in the DRP for part or all of your shareholding (i.e. if you decide either Alternative 2 or 3 suits your particular circumstances), you must either obtain a hard copy election form from the Share Registry, Computershare Investor Services Pty Limited, GPO Box 2975, Melbourne VIC 3001, or complete your DRP election online at www.investorcentre.com/au prior to the DRP Election Date for the relevant dividend.

Please note that if your shares are held under different shareholder reference numbers in the Register you will need to complete an Election Form in respect of each separate shareholder reference number.

FEATURES OF THE PLAN

Number of Shares Issued and Issue Price of Shares:

Under the DRP, the relevant dividend payable in cash on shares participating in the DRP will be applied by the Company on your behalf in subscribing for fully paid ordinary shares in Korvest. Such shares will be issued at the lower of:

- the price as determined by the Board, in its absolute discretion and announced to ASX on the day a Dividend is declared by the Board, to be the maximum price (if any) in dollars per share at which Shares will be issued pursuant to the DRP ("Price Cap"); and
- the price in dollars per share derived by applying a discount (as determined by the Board in its absolute discretion and announced to ASX on the day a Dividend is declared by the Board) to the "Market Price" which is the volume weighted average market price (on an ex-dividend basis) of Korvest shares during the five trading days subsequent to and inclusive of the Ex-Dividend Date for the relevant dividend provided however that where no sales are recorded over the aforementioned period or if, in the opinion of the Board, in its absolute discretion, the market for shares in the Company is affected by any unusual or extraordinary circumstances, the "Market Price" of Korvest shares means the fair ex-dividend market value of a Share given the relevant circumstances as determined by the Board of Directors in its absolute discretion.

Ranking of Shares: Shares issued pursuant to the Plan will rank equally in all respects with all other fully paid ordinary shares on issue.

No Costs: Shares issued pursuant to the Plan will be allotted free of any brokerage, commission, stamp duty and other transaction costs.

Share Statements: Statements will be issued as soon as practicable after the shares are issued pursuant to the Plan.

Variation and Modification of Rules: The Board may vary or modify the Rules of the Plan from time to time and at any time as it considers appropriate.

Suspension, Termination and Recommencement: The Board may suspend, terminate or recommence the operation of the Plan in its absolute discretion from time to time and at any time it considers appropriate in relation to dividends in the future.

TIME PERIODS FOR ELECTION

Your Election Form must be received by the DRP Election Date which is one Business Day after the Record Date for the relevant dividend.

Once you have elected which shares are to participate in the Plan, you cannot vary that election after the DRP Election Date for the relevant dividend.

VARIATION OF ELECTION

Subject to the Rules of the Plan, if you wish to vary your previous election you may do so by delivery to the Share Registry of a Variation Notice by the DRP Election Date for the relevant dividend.

ELIGIBILITY TO PARTICIPATE

Subject to any applicable law, all shareholders are eligible to participate in the Plan with respect to relevant dividends.

The Board may determine that shareholders are not eligible to participate in the Plan if they have registered addresses in a country or place where the offer of a right to participate would or might be unlawful, impossible or impracticable. The Board has exercised this discretion to determine that shareholders with registered addresses outside Australia or New Zealand are not eligible to participate in the Plan.

SUMMARY OF TAX POSITION

Residents:

Under the DRP, participating resident shareholders use the relevant dividend the subject of the DRP paid on participating shares to subscribe for additional fully paid ordinary shares in Korvest. For taxation purposes, shares received under the DRP are treated as though the shareholder had received a cash dividend and then paid it back to Korvest to subscribe for new shares. The Company's understanding is that:

- (i) shares received under the DRP are treated as having been purchased by the reinvestment of cash dividends for the purposes of the Australian dividend imputation system. A participant in the DRP will therefore be subject to tax on the same basis as a recipient of cash dividends. Accordingly, where the Company declares "franked dividends", a participant in the DRP will be treated as receiving franked dividends to which "franking rebates" (i.e. tax credits) attach for Australian income tax purposes. "Top-up tax" may be payable at the difference between the corporate tax rate of 30% upon which the franking rebate is based and the individual marginal tax rate of the relevant shareholder;
- (ii) shares received under the DRP will, in general, be subject to Australian capital gains tax upon disposal, regardless of whether the Korvest shares in respect of which they are issued were acquired by the participating shareholder before, on or after 20 September 1985. The cost base of the shares received under the DRP will be calculated for capital gains tax purposes on the basis they were acquired at a cost equal to the cash value of the dividend which is applied to pay for the shares. The acquisition date for capital gains tax purposes will be the date of issue of the shares under the DRP.

Non Residents:

A non-resident shareholder should not be subject to Australian tax on receipt of the relevant dividend the subject of the Plan. A non-resident is not able to make use of franking credits to reduce Australian tax on other income. In addition, a non-resident will not be subject to dividend withholding tax on the relevant dividend to the extent that the dividend is franked. If the dividend is not franked, dividend withholding tax at the rate of 30% (or, if paid to a resident of a country with which Australia has a double tax agreement, the lower rate specified in the agreement) will be withheld from the dividend and paid to the Australian Taxation Office. The capital gains tax consequences of participation by a non-resident in the Plan would be as described above for residents, although most non-residents would not in any event be subject to Australian capital gains tax in respect of their Korvest shares.

Independent Tax Advice:

The above comments concerning the taxation position of shareholders are necessarily general in nature and shareholders should seek and rely upon their own taxation advice in relation to the Plan.

The precise taxation position of a shareholder under the Plan will depend upon the particular circumstances of the shareholder. Specifically, this summary does not address taxation issues relevant to shareholders in special circumstances, such as share traders or persons carrying on an investment business. The sole purpose of this summary is to outline the basic features of the Plan. Shareholders should not rely upon this summary for taxation purposes, and neither the Company nor any of its officers or advisers nor the Share Registry accepts liability or responsibility in respect of any statement concerning taxation consequences, or in respect of the taxation consequences themselves.

If a BSP is also in operation, subject to the rules of the BSP:

- (a) a Shareholder may, in respect of Shares entered in the Register in the Shareholder's name, elect partial participation in both the DRP and the BSP but Shares participating in the BSP cannot simultaneously participate in the DRP; and
- (b) if a Shareholder elects to participate in both the DRP and BSP to such an extent that the aggregate number of Shares nominated to participate in both the DRP and BSP is greater than the number of Shares entered in the Register in the Shareholder's name at the Record Date, the Company may, without notice to the Shareholder and at the discretion of the Company, reject the Election Form or may determine the extent of participation of the Shareholder in the DRP and BSP in such way as the Company, in its discretion, deems fit. The Company shall not be liable to the Shareholder for any loss, damage or claim in respect of that Shareholder's participation in either or both of the DRP or BSP as a result of the operation of this provision.

4. OPERATION OF DRP

The DRP shall commence to operate on 12 May 2014, being the date on which the Board resolved to implement the DRP.

$S = N \text{ divided by } C \text{ or } M \text{ (as the case may be)}$

Where:

N is the amount in dollars of the Distribution Amount;

C is the Price Cap in dollars per Share for the relevant Dividend or, if there is no Price Cap for the relevant Dividend, C is equal to M.

M is the amount in dollars per Share of the Market Price reduced by the discount (as determined by the Board from time to time in its absolute discretion and announced to ASX prior to or on the day a Dividend is declared by the Board) subject to any maximum and/or minimum price (if applicable, as determined by the Board from time to time in its absolute discretion and announced to ASX prior to or on the day a Dividend is declared by the Board); and Notwithstanding the formula in this clause, the Board in its absolute discretion may determine the maximum number of additional Shares which can be acquired with the Distribution Amount by each Participant. In that case, the balance of the Distribution Amount which has not been applied in subscribing for additional Shares will be paid to the relevant Participant in money.
